Dated Chandigarh the 08.12.2000

Subject:

REVISION OF PAY SCALES OF TEACHERS OF UNIVERSITIES AND COLLEGES.

Sir,

The Government of Haryana had vide their letter No. 1/1/99-Edu.I (1) dated 13.5.99/7.6.99 notified the revised pay scales of teachers working in Universities and colleges in the State w.e.f. 01.01.1996 after considering the recommendations of the University Grants commission as conveyed by the Government of India vide their letter No. F.1-22/97-U.I., dated 27th July, 1998 and another letter Dated 6th November 1998. Certain matters such as benefit of past service towards Senior/Selection grade, qualifications for the post of Principal, revised pay scales of Asstt. Librarians (Selection Grade) and Readers, benefit of increments to teachers having M.Phil/Ph.D degree and revised UGC recommendation regarding qualifications for the post of lecturers etc. have further been considered and decided by the State Government. These decisions are incorporated in the enclosed Annexures. The Government has further decided to issue a comprehensive revised order on the basis of these decisions.

2. This order will supersede the earlier orders dated 13.5.99/7.6.99 referred to above on the subject.

CMS-1/19

3. The revised pay scales are contained in Annexures I, II and III. These pay scales will be subject to the terms and conditions as contained in Annexure IV and pay will be fixed in accordance with the pay fixation formula as per Annexure V.

4. The Government of India will provide assistance to the State Government to the extent of 80% of the additional expenditure involved in giving effect to the revision of pay scales to the posts which were in existence on 1st January, 1996, from 01.01.1996 to 31.03.2000 while the State Government will bear the remaining 20% from their own resources. The State Government/Colleges/Universities as per existing instructions will meet the entire financial liability on account of revision of pay scales w.e.f. 01.04.2000.

5. The Teachers will be released salary in the revised grades w.e.f. 01.04.99. and arrears from 1.1.96 to 31.03.99 would be released only on the receipt of 80% financial assistance from Central Government. Other allowances and other benefits on the revised pay scales after 1.1.96 would be admissible as per existing State Government Rules/instructions issued/amended from time to time. The arrears on account of revision of pay scales for the period from 1.1.1996 to 31.03.99 will be deposited in the General Provident Fund Account of the Teachers, Librarians and Physical Education personnel working in Government Colleges and in National Saving Certificates in the case of staff of Universities, Private Aided Colleges, adhoc, staff on probation and any other category of staff working in government colleges who are not subscribing to General Provident Fund for any reason. The National Saving Certificates will be purchased by the institutions concerned from any post-office in the State of Haryana and handed over to the officials concerned. The amount deposited in National Saving Certificates will not be withdrawn by the investors till the date of their maturity. However the arrears will be paid only on the receipt of the assistance from the Government of India.

6. Anomalies, if any, in the implementation of the scheme of revision of pay scales may be brought to the notice of the Government for clarification.

7. This issues with the concurrence of the Finance Department conveyed vide their U.O. No. 7/1(2)98-5 FR-I dated 12.4.99 and No. 7/1(2)98-5 FR-I dated 23.7.2000.

- (a) Made some mark in the areas of scholarship and research as evidenced by self-assessment, reports of referees, quality of publications, contribution to the educational innovation; design of new courses and curricula etc.

- (o) After placement in the senior scale, participated in at least two refresher courses/summer institutes each of approximately four weeks duration or engaged in other appropriate continuing education programmes of comparable quality as may be specified or approved by the UGC.
- (c) Earned consistently good performance appraisal reports.
- (d) The Government lecturers who are appointed on or after 1.1.96 shall have to serve in the Rural Area for a period of five year i.e. three years before the placement in the Senior Scale, and Two years after placement in the senior scale before they become eligible for selection grade. The lecturer shall be free to opt to do the Rural service for the period of five year at a stretch.

12. Every lecturer in the senior scale working in the universities will be eligible for the promotion to the post of Reader in the scale of Rs. 12000-18300 if he/she has completed 5 years of service in the senior scale.

- (a) Obtained a Ph.D degree or has equivalent published work.
- (b) Made some mark in the area of scholarship and research as evidenced by self-assessment, reports of referees, quality of publications, contribution to the educational innovation, design of new courses and curricula etc.
- (c) After placement in the senior scale, participated in at least two refresher courses/ summer institutes each of approximately four weeks duration or engaged in other appropriate continuing education programmes of comparable quality as may be specified and approved by the UGC.
- (d) Earned consistently good performance appraisal reports.

Lecturers in the Senior Scale who do not have Ph.D. a degree of equivalent published work and who do not meet the scholarship and research standards, but fulfil the other criteria given above for the post of Reader and have a good record in teaching and preferably have contributed in various ways such as to the corporate life of the institution, examination work, or through extension activities, will be placed in the selection grade of Rs. 12000-18300 subject to the recommendations of the Selection Committee which is the same as for promotion to the post of Reader. They will be designated as a lecturer in the selection grade. They could offer themselves for fresh assessment after obtaining Ph.D and/or fulfilling other requirements for promotion as Reader and, if found suitable, could be given the designation of Reader.

13. Promotion to the post of Reader in the university and lecturer in selection grade in colleges and Universities subject to fulfillment of criteria laid down under para 11 and 12 above will be through a process of selection by a selection/Screening committees (appendix V and VII) set up by the State Government/Universities concerned.

14. The pay scales of college teachers/university teachers were revised with effect from 1.1.1986 in view of University Grants Commission/Government of India recommendation and as per paras 17 and 18 of Haryana Government letter dated 23.8.89, the following provisions were made in respect of teachers promoted under merit-promotion scheme/Personal Promotion Scheme.

"The existing teachers in Universities where the Merit Promotion Scheme formulated by the University Grants Commission in 1983, or any other similar schemes are in operation will have an option to continue to be governed by the provisions of these schemes provided that they exercise that option in writing prior to their pay fixation under this scheme, but the revision of pay will be as follows:-

- (i) Lecturer Rs. 2200-4000
- (ii) Reader Rs. 3000-5000
- (iii) Professor Rs. 4500-5700

The promotion made before the announcement of the revised scales on 17.6.87 will not be reopened. However, in such cases, the benefit of revision will be available to teachers only from the date of their promotion.

It has been noticed by the State Government that universities have not only made irregular promotion under Merit Promotion Scheme/Personal Promotion Scheme in contravention of University Grants Commission's guidelines especially by granting relaxation in teaching experience, and has also granted them revised pay scales higher than provided under Haryana Government orders. Besides, the teachers have been allowed to change their options. There have been also cases of double promotions. The State Government has directed the universities to review such cases/effect recoveries where illegal promotion have been made.

In the above background the revised pay package effective from 1.1.1996 will be applicable only in cases on those teachers earlier promoted strictly as per University Grants Commission's guidelines, and covered under Haryana Government orders dated 8.3.89 and only such teachers will placed in the respective revised pay scales with effect from 1.1.1996. However, Readers/Professors who were strictly governed/promoted as per UGC old merit scheme of 1987 and were in the pre revised scale of Rs. 3000-5000 and 4500-5700 would be eligible for full scale of Rs. 10000-325-15200 and 16400-450-20900-500-22400 respectively w.e.f. 1.1.96. The University can discuss in its academic body and decide inter se seniority between the merit promotee and direct recruits based on the date of selection, and as per the existing/amended acts and statutes of the University. The cases of teachers promoted in contravention of University Grants Commission's guidelines/Haryana Government orders will be reviewed separately by a committee to be set up by the State Government before granting them any revised pay scales. Merit promotion scheme/personal promotion scheme stands abolished.

Professor (Promotion)

15. In addition to the sanctioned position of Professors, which must be filled in through direct recruitment through all advertisements, promotions may be made from the post of Reader to that of Professor after 8 years of service as Reader.

The Selection Committee for promotion to the post of Professor should be the same as that for direct recruitment. For the promotion from Reader to Professor, the following method of promotion may be followed.

The candidate should present herself/himself before the Selection Committee with some of the following:

- a) Self-appraisal reports (required).
- b) Research contribution/books/articles published.
- c) Any other academic contributions.

The best three written contributions of the teacher (as defined by her/him) may be sent in advance to the Experts to review before coming for the selection. The candidate should be asked to submit these in 3 sets with the application.

- d) Seminars/conferences attended.
- e) Contribution to teaching/academic environment/institutional or corporate life.
- f) Extension and field outreach activities.

CUT OFF DATE

The above Career Advancement Scheme for college and university teachers shall become effective w.e.f. 27.07.1998.

- 16. The fixation of pay of lectures (Selection Grade)/ Readers/Principals in the pre-revised grade of Rs. 3700-125-4950-150-5700 who were selected strictly in accordance with the rules and regulations framed by the University Grants Commission and the State Government and who were in the position as lecturer (Selection Grade)/ Readers/ Principals on 1.1.1996 will be made in a manner that they get their pay fixed at the minimum of Rs. 14940 in the revised scale of Rs. 12000-420-18300 as and when they complete five years service in the grade.
- 17. The requirement of participation in orientation/refresher course/summer institutes each of three to four week duration, and consistently satisfactory performance appraisal reports, shall be the mandatory requirement for career advancement from lecturer to lecturer (Senior Scale) and from lecturer (Senior Scale) to lecturer (Selection Grade). The teachers would be required to present research paper during refresher courses. Whenever, the requirement of orientation courses/refresher courses has remained incomplete, the Grade promotion would not be held up but these must be completed by the year 2000.

The requirement for completing these courses would be as follows:

- (i) for lecturer to lecturer (Senior Scale) one orientation course plus one refresher course would be compulsory for university and college teachers.
- (ii) Two refresher courses for lecturer (senior scale) to lecturer (selection grade).

(ii) The senior teachers like Readers/Lecturer (selection grade) and Professors may opt to attend two seminars/conferences in their subject area and present papers as one aspect of their promotion/selection to higher level or attend refresher courses to be offered by ASCs for this level.

(iv) Librarians/Lecturer Physical Education would not get automatically the senior/selection grade and the criteria suggested for the award of senior/selection grade to lecturer will be followed in their case also.

PERIOD OF PROBATION AND CONFIRMATION

18. The period of probation for university and college teachers shall be two years extendable for maximum period of one more year in case of unsatisfactory performance.

The university may devise a mechanism for ensuring that the Head of the University Department/College Principal sponsors the teachers for the required orientation and refresher course, and such opportunity is not denied to the teachers, except on sufficient ground to be specified in writing to the university. The university should also bring to the attention of the UGC any complaint received from university or college teachers that they did not get admission to the courses for which they applied with details (name of the teachers, name of the institution where employed, course applied for, ASC or department where applied, dates of course and reasons given for refusal).

19. The universities/colleges must observe at least 180 actual teaching days i.e. there should be a minimum of 30 weeks of actual teaching in a 6 day/week as a mandatory provisions of the remaining period, 12 weeks may be devoted to admission and examination activities and non instructional days (e.g. for sports, college day etc.) 8 weeks for vacation and 2 weeks may be attributed to various public holidays. If the University adopts a 5 day week pattern then the number of weeks should be increased correspondingly to ensure equivalent of 30 weeks with a 6 day week. The above is summarised as follows:

| | NO. OF WEEKS | |
|--|---------------------|-----------------|
| | University | Colleges |
| Teaching | 30 (180 days) | 30 (180 days) |
| Admissions/examinations | 12 | 10 |
| Preparation for examination | | |
| Vacation | 8 | 10 |
| Public Holidays | | |
| (to increase and adjust teaching days accordingly) | 2 | 2 |
| Total | 52 | 52 |

The universities shall prepare the academic calendar accordingly well before the commencement of academic session every year.

WORK LOAD

The workload of the teacher in full employment should not be less than 40 hours a week for 30 working weeks (180 teaching days) in an academic year. It should be necessary for the teachers to be available for at least 5 hours daily in the University/college for which necessary space and infrastructure should be provided by the University/college. The minimum direct teaching hours should be as follows:

|--|----------|
| Lecturer/Sr. Lecturer/Lecturer (Selection Grade) | 16 hours |

In addition, the following code of professional ethics, as evolved by the UGC, shall be binding on all teachers working in the Universities and Colleges of Haryana.

I. Teachers and Their Responsibilities:

Whoever adopts teaching as a profession assumes the obligation to conduct himself in accordance with the ideals of the profession. A teacher is constantly under the scrutiny of his students and the society at large. Therefore, every teacher should see that there is no incompatibility between which his precepts and practice. The national ideals of education which have already been set forth and which he/she should seek to inculcate among students must be his/her own ideals. The profession further requires that the teachers should be calm, patient and communicative by temperament and amiable in disposition.

Teacher should

- (i) adhere to a responsible pattern of conduct and demeanour expected of them by the community;
- (ii) manage their private affairs in a manner consistent with the dignity of the profession;

- (iii) seek to make professional growth continuous through study and research;
- (iv) express free and frank opinion by participation at professional meetings, seminars, conferences etc. towards the contribution of knowledge;
- (v) maintain active membership of professional organisations and strive to improve education and profession through them;
- (vi) perform their duties in the form of teaching, tutorial, practical and seminar work conscientiously and with dedication;
- (vii) co-operate and assist in carrying out functions relating to the educational responsibilities of the college and the university such as: assisting in appraising applications for admission, advising and counseling students as well as assisting in the conduct of university and college examinations, including supervision, invigilation and evaluation; and
- (viii) participate in extension, co-curricular and extra-curricular activities including community service.

II Teachers and the Students

Teachers should

- (i) respect the right and dignity of the student in expressing his/her opinion,
- (ii) deal justly and impartially with students regardless of their religion, caste, political, economic, social and physical characteristics;
- (iii) recognise the difference in aptitude and capabilities among students and strive to meet their individual needs;

- (iv) encourage students to improve their attainments, develop their personalities and at the same time contribute to community welfare;
- (v) inculcate among students scientific outlook and respect for physical labour and ideals of democracy, patriotism and peace;
- (vi) be affectionate to the students and not behave in a vindictive manner towards any of them for any reason;
- (vii) pay attention to only the attainment of the student in the assessment of merit;
- (viii) make themselves available to the students even beyond their class hours and help and guide students without any remuneration or reward;
- (ix) aid students to develop an understanding of our national heritage and national goals and
- (x) refrain from inciting students against other students, colleagues or administration.

III Teachers and Colleagues

Teachers should

- (i) treat other member of the profession in the same manner as they themselves wish to be treated;
- (ii) speak respectfully of other teachers and render assistance for professional betterment;
- (iii) refrain from lodging unsubstantiated allegations against colleagues to higher authorities;
- (iv) refrain from allowing considerations of caste, creed, religion, race or sex in their professional endeavour.

IV. Teachers and Authorities:

Teachers should

- (i) discharge their professional responsibilities according to the existing rules and adhere to procedures and methods consistent with their profession in initiating steps through their own institutional bodies and/or professional organisations for change of any such rule detrimental to the professional interest.
- (ii) Refrain from undertaking any other employment and commitment including private tuitions and coaching classes which are likely to interfere with their professional responsibilities.
- (iii) Co-operate in the formulation of policies of the institution by accepting various offices and discharge responsibilities which such offices may demand.
- (iv) Co-operate through their organizations in the formulation of policies of the other institutions and accept offices
- (v) Co-operate with the authorities for the betterment of the institutions keeping in view the interest and in conformity with dignity of the profession.
- (vi) should adhere to the conditions of contract;
- (vii) give and expect due notice before a change of position is made and
- (viii) refrain from availing themselves of leave except on unavoidable grounds and as far as possible with prior intimation, keeping in view their particular responsibility for completion of academic schedule.

V. Teachers and Non-Teaching Staff:

- (i) Teachers should treat the non-teaching staff as colleagues and equal partners in a cooperative undertaking, within every educational institution;
- (ii) Teachers should help in the function of joint staff-councils covering both teachers and the non-teaching staff.

VI. Teachers should try to see through teachers' bodies and organisations that institutions maintain contact with the guardians of their students, and reports of their performance to the guardians whenever necessary and meet the guardians in meetings convened for the purpose of mutual exchange of ideas and for the benefit of the institution.

VII. Teachers and Society

Teachers should

- (i) recognise that education is a public service and strive to keep the public informed of the educational programme which are being provided;
- (ii) work to improve education in the community and strengthen the community's moral and intellectual life;
- (iii) be aware of social problems and take part in such activities as would be conducive to the progress of society and hence the country as a whole;
- (iv) perform the duties of citizenship, participate in community activities and shoulder responsibilities of public offices;
- (v) refrain from taking part in or subscribing to or assisting in any way activities which tend to promote feeling of hatred or enmity among different communities, religions or linguistic groups but actively work for National Integration.

ACCOUNTABILITY

24. The self appraisal of performance should be adopted as a mandatory part of the Career Advancement scheme and should be implemented with the new pay scales within time frame of 1 year if not already implemented. It would be optional for the institution to consider introducing student evaluation as a method of assessment of the teacher, particularly in small institutions, post graduate departments, professional colleges and autonomous colleges.

Universities would ensure formulation of academic calendar and its enforcement every year. It would also be ensured that the students put in the required percentage of attendance and also appear in the house tests and pass with the percentage prescribed before they are allowed to sit in the annual examination.

DATE OF EFFECT

25. The revised scales of pay will be effective from January 01, 1996.

EXERCISE OF OPTION

26(i) The option shall be exercised in writing in the form appended to the Annexure V so as to reach the Principal within three months of the date of publication of these rules or where an existing scale has been revised by any order made subsequent to that date within three months of the date of such order.

Provided that in the case of that employee who is, on the date of such publication or, as the case may be, date of such order on leave or on foreign service, the said option shall be exercised in writing so as to reach the said authority within three months of the date of his post or at the expiry of the sanctioned leave.

Provided further that where an employee is under suspension on the 1st day of January, 1996, the option may be exercised within three months of the date of his return to his duty.

- (ii) If the intimation regarding option is not received within the time, the employee shall be deemed to have elected to be governed by the revised scale of pay on and from the 1st day of January, 1996.
- (iii) The option once exercised shall be final.
- (iv) Persons whose services were terminated on or after the 1st January, 1996 and who could not exercise the option within the prescribed time limit, on account of death, discharge in the expiry or removal on account of disciplinary proceeding, are entitled to the benefit of this rule.

Provided that with respect to the persons whose services were terminated on account of death, the option shall be exercised by his legal heir who is entitled to the receipt of payments.

PAY FIXATION FORMULA

27. The pay of the teachers in the revised scale on 1.1.1996 will be fixed in accordance with the formula recommended by Government of India. The details of the pay fixation formula are given in Annexure V.

All the other service conditions of universities and college teachers will continue to be governed by the existing rules/instructions of the State Government.

The State Government may change any of the above conditions on its own or on the recommendations of University Grants Commission or Government of India.

Formula for fixation of pay in the revised scales

- I. Pay in the revised scales should be fixed under this scheme only after:
 - (a) every teacher has had opportunity to decide whether he/she will opt for the earlier scheme and
 - (b) the University or College concerned has made necessary changes in their statutes, ordinances, rules, regulations, etc. to incorporate the provisions of this scheme.

- II. The pay of teachers in Universities and colleges may be fixed in the revised scales of pay in the following manner:-
 - (i) An Amount representing 40% of basic pay in the existing scale shall be added to the "existing emoluments".
 - (ii) After the existing emoluments have been so increased, the pay shall thereafter be fixed in the revised scale at the stage next above the amount thus computed, provided that:-
 - (a) If the minimum of the revised scale is more than the amount so arrived at, the pay shall be fixed at the minimum of the revised scale.
 - (b) If the amount so arrived at is more than the maximum of the revised scale, the pay shall be fixed at the maximum of that scale.

Provided further that:

Where in the fixation of pay, the pay of the teachers drawing pay at more than four consecutive stages in an existing scale gets bunched, that is to say, gets fixed in the revised scale at the same stage, the pay in the revised scale of such of these teachers who are drawing pay beyond the first four consecutive stages in the existing scale shall be stepped up to the stage where such bunching occurs, as under, by the grant of an increment (s) in the revised scale in the following manner, namely:-

- (a) for the teachers drawing from the 9th upto the 12th stage in the existing scale - by one increment.
- (b) For teachers drawing pay from the 9th upto the 12th stage in the existing scale, if there is bunching beyond the 8th stage - by two increments.
- (c) For teachers drawing pay from the 13th upto 16th stage in the existing scale, if there is bunching beyond the 12th stage - by three increments.

If by stepping up to the pay as above, the pay of a teacher gets fixed at a stage in the revised scale which is higher than the stage in the revised scale at which the pay a teacher who was drawing pay at the next higher stage or stages in the same existing scale is fixed, the pay of the latter shall also be stepped up only to the extent by which it falls short of that of the former.

Provided also that:

The fixation thus made shall ensure that every teacher will get at least one increment in the revised scale of pay for every three increments [inclusive of stagnation increment (s), if any] in the existing scale of pay.

Explanation : For the purpose of this clause "existing emoluments" shall include,

- (a) the basic pay in the existing scale;
- (b) dearness allowances appropriate to the basic pay admissible at index average 1510 (1960=100); and
- (c) the amount of first and second instalment of interim relief admissible on the basic pay in the existing scale.

NOTE 1. Where the increment of a teacher falls on 1st day of January, 1996, he shall have option to draw the increment in the existing scale or the revised scale.

NOTE 2. Where a teacher is on the 1st day of January, 1996, he shall become entitled to pay in the revised scale of pay from the date he joins duty. In case of teacher under suspension, he shall continue to draw subsistence allowance based on existing scale of pay and his pay in the revised pay scale will be subject to final order on the pending disciplinary proceedings.

NOTE 3. Where the existing emoluments as calculated in accordance with clause II above exceed the revised emoluments in the case of any teacher, the difference shall be allowed as personal pay to be absorbed in future increases in the pay.

NOTE 4. Where in the fixation of pay under clause II above, pay of a teacher, who, in the existing scale was drawing immediately before the 1st day of January, 1996 more pay than another teacher junior to him in the same category, gets fixed in the revised scale at a stage lower than that of such junior, his pay shall be stepped upto the same stage in the revised scale as that of the junior.

NOTE 5. In cases, where a senior teacher promoted to a higher post before the 1st day of January, 1996 draws less pay in the revised scale than his junior who is promoted to the higher post on or after the 1st day of January, 1996, the pay of the senior teacher should be stepped upto an amount equal to the pay as fixed for his junior in that higher post. The stepping up should be done with effect from the date of promotion of the junior teacher subject to the fulfilment of the following conditions, namely:-

This stage go beyond the pay scale, and hence the pay is fixed at the maximum.

- (a) both the junior and the senior teacher should belong to the same category and the post in which they have been promoted should be identical in the same category.
- (b) The pre-revised and revised scales of pay of the lower and higher posts in which they are entitled to draw pay should be identical.
- (c) The senior teacher at the time of promotion has been drawing equal or more pay than the junior.
- (d) The anomaly should be directly as a result of the application of the provisions of fundamental Rule 22 or any other rule or order regulating pay fixation on such promotion in the revised scale. If even in the lower post, the junior officer was drawing more pay in the pre-revised scale than the senior by virtue of pay advance increment granted to him, provision of this Note need not be invoked to step up the pay of his senior teacher.

The teacher relating of the pay of the senior teacher in accordance with the above provisions should be issued under Fundamental rule 27 and the senior teacher will be entitled to the next increment on completion of his required qualifying service with effect from the date of re-fixation of pay.

2. Date of next increment in the revised scale -- The next increment of a teacher whose pay has been fixed in the revised scale in accordance with the above procedure shall be granted on the date he would have drawn his increment, had he continued in the existing scale:

Provided that in cases where the pay of a teacher is stepped up in terms of Note 4 or Note 5 above, the next increment shall be granted on the completion of qualifying service of twelve months from the date of stepping up of the pay in the revised scale.

Provided further that in cases other than those covered by the preceding provision, the next increment of a teacher, whose pay is fixed on the 1st day of January, 1996 at the same stage as the one fixed for another teacher junior to him in the same category and drawing pay at a lower stage than his in the existing scale, shall be granted on the same date as admissible to his junior, if the date of increment of the junior happens to be earlier.

Provided also that in the case of persons who had been drawing maximum of the existing scale for more than a year as on the 1st day of January, 1996, next increment in the revised scale shall be allowed on the 1st day of January, 1996.

A Ready-Reckoner for fixation of pay of teachers in the different pay scales is enclosed as Appendix.

Suggestions:

-  A person with basic pay Rs. 3200 on 1.1.96, may better not have his pay fixation on 1.1.96, it may be better for him to opt for pay fixation after 1.1.96, on his usual increment date (falling after 1.1.96), after availing the increment in the old scale, increasing his pay in the old scale to Rs. 3300.

All other persons may opt for pay fixation on 1.1.96.

The clarification regarding grant of two increments in lieu of completion of Ph.D by a teacher in service on or after 1.1.96 at the time of fixation is as under:-

EXAMPLE 1

A college lecturer joined service as such on 1.6.80. He was not a Ph.D at the time of joining service. He was given the senior scale on completion of 8 years service under the career Advancement Scheme of 1987 as on 1.6.88. Further, the teacher acquired Ph.D degree during service, say on 30th June 1994. On acquiring the Ph.D Degree, the teacher also became eligible for grant of the Selection Grade and the Selection Grade is given to him on 1st July, 1994. His case will be dealt with as under:

1. Basic pay as on 1.6.88 on grant of Senior Scale: Rs. 3000/- in the scale of 3000-5000
2. Basic pay as on 30.6.94 in the senior scale: Rs. 3625/-
3. Basic pay as 1.7.94: Rs. 3700/- in the Selection Grade of Rs. 3700-5700.
4. His pay is revised on 1.1.96 in the Revised Selection Grade of Rs. 12000-18300 and the pay is fixed at Rs. 12000/-
5. He is allowed two increments in this scale in lieu of his having acquired Ph.D Degree in service on or after 1.1.96. Accordingly his pay gets fixed at Rs. 12000 + 420 + 420 = Rs. 12840/-.
6. He will not get any benefit of two increments on grant of selection grade which was granted to him in the old scheme where this benefit was not admissible.

EXAMPLE - 2

A College lecturer joined service on 1.6.83 without Ph.D. He was given the Senior Scale on 1.6.91 on completion of 8 years service in the time scale and his pay was fixed at Rs. 3000/-. His pay is fixed in the corresponding revised scale of Rs. 10000-325-15200 at the stage of Rs. 10325/- on 1.1.96. He acquires the Ph.D degree on 31.3.96 and gets two advance increments as on 1.4.96 raising his basic pay to Rs. 10975/-. He becomes eligible for grant of Selection Grade of Rs. 12000-18300 as on 1.6.96. His pay gets fixed at Rs. 12000/- and he also gets two increments on account of grant of Selection Grade, thereby, raising his pay to the level of Rs. 12840/- as on 1.6.96.

46

EXAMPLE 3

A college lecturer joins service on 1.6.92. He acquires Ph.D degree on 31.3.96 and gets two increments in the revised scale of Rs. 8000-13500. He becomes eligible for grant of Senior Scale on 1.6.96, gets the same and gets fixed at Rs. 10000/- as on 1.6.96. He will be eligible for grant of Selection Grade as on 1.6.2001 when he is drawing a basic pay of Rs. 11625/- and gets fixed at Rs. 12000/- in the Selection Grade. He also gets two advance increments on that date and gets fixed at Rs. 12840/- as on 1.6.2001.
