Memo No. : 22/202-2019 C-1(1)

Dated: the Panchkula, December 2nd 2019.

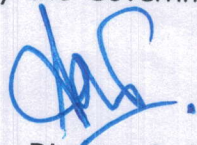

Subject: - Regarding utilization of "Development Fund" to Government Colleges.

May please peruse the subject cited above.

I have been directed to inform you that amount of "Development Fund" w.r.t the Government colleges is available with the State affiliating universities since long.

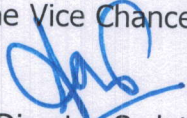

It has been decided by the government that all the Government Colleges in the State which came into functioning/ opened on or before the academic session 2004-05, in all such cases the Principals of all these Government colleges are hereby authorised to utilize an amount upto Rs. 20.00 lacs from the Development fund.

It is therefore requested that proposals may please be invited from the Principals of these Government colleges and you are further requested to issue necessary directions to the university officers/officials that all such proposals may please be sanctioned by the University out of the Development fund available with the university so that the required amount may be utilized by the Government College Principal as per the State government procedure.
