Memo No. DHE-010009/92/2020-Coordination-DHE
Dated, Panchkula 9/11/2020.

Subject: Institutional Registration and participation of the Universities/Colleges in the Valley of Words Event, 2020.

Valley of Words is a non-profit and volunteer-driven initiative of The Valley of Words Foundation Trust. It brings together the best writers, critics and listeners from the worlds of fiction, non-fiction and poetry in a three-day Literature and Arts festival in the quaint town of Dehradun.

VoW has held three successful festivals, with the forth one being virtually organised from the 20th to 22nd of November this year. VoW in collaboration with the Department of Higher Education Haryana, aims at providing an opportunity for the students of Haryana to participate in the Literature festival to witness storytellers, bloggers, balladeers puppeteers, thespians, photographers, artists and craftspeople from all across the nation.

Valley of words is organizing a 3-day online literature festival that shall have more than 60 sessions (minimum 60 minutes duration of each session). The sessions are based on History, Military, English Literature and art/cultural theme. The students of Haryana shall get to experience this mega literature festival and get a chance to listen to the opinions of acclaimed authors, speakers and resource persons on a diverse range of topics. The festival shall expand their knowledge horizons through the creation of new learning opportunities.

For this purpose, it is required that one Nodal Officer be appointed from each Higher Education Institution in the State to coordinate with the Department for the Literature Festival.

Session Details and Schedule:

- The literature festival comprises of more than 60 sessions to be held virtually over a stretch of 3 days (20th to 22nd November).

Suma H

- The Topics of the sessions, time and the details of the panellists shall be shared as an attachment to this mail.
- Each institute has been allotted more than two sessions and the proposed strength has been specified for each session.

Roles/Responsibilities of the Nodal Officer:

- The Nodal Officer shall be allotted three or more sessions in the event.
- The Nodal Officer needs to ensure that the students attend the sessions as per the proposed strength specified in the document attached.
- The Nodal Officer shall appoint two such students who shall raise queries in the interaction round of the session.
- The Nodal Officers need to fill in the student details as per the sample attached in the Google Form Link.

Student Participation:

- In case students do not have an access to internet/phones, the Nodal Officers shall organize webinars at the college ensuring social distancing for the students.
- The link to the event shall be shared shortly (over Nodal Officer's Whatsapp Group)
- The nodal officers shall circulate the link among the students who shall be attending the session from home.
- Students attending the sessions from home need to individually login using the link provided.

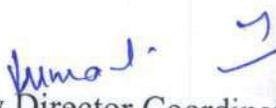

Institutes undergoing examinations.

- Participation of the institutes undergoing examinations shall not be mandatory. Such universities may circulate all the information related to the event among the students and encourage them to participate in the allotted sessions.
- For the institutes having practical examination, the proposed strength has been considerable for the nodal officers to ensure student participation accordingly.

FAQ: Valley of Words: 2020

Q. What is the Valley of Words Event?

Valley of Words is a non-profit and volunteer-driven initiative of The Valley of Words Foundation Trust. It brings together the best writers, critics and listeners from the worlds of fiction, non-fiction and poetry in a three-day Literature and Arts festival in the quaint town of Dehradun.

Q. When and Where is the Valley of Words 2020 Event Being Held?

This year, Valley of Words is being held online from 20th to 22nd November. The entire event is virtual and the students/Faculty members may access the entire event from their phones itself.

Q. What are the events/activities being held in the Literature Festival?

There are 60 sessions being held on a stretch of 3 days i.e. 20th to 22nd November. The duration of each session is approximately 60 minutes. There will be a panel discussion of 50 minutes followed by 10 minute student interaction.

Q. What are the details of the sessions?

The sessions are each based on a topic on Hindi Literature, English Literature, Defence and Geography. The Panelist details of each session has been mentioned in the session schedule circulated.

Q. Who can attend the festival?

The festival is open for all. Individuals across backgrounds can be a part of the sessions.

Q. How are the sessions allotted?

The sessions are allotted as per the student strength and the geographical area of the institute.

Q. How do the students attend the session?

The student participation shall be ensured as per the convenience of the Nodal Officers. The students can individually login from their phones. In the case of students not having a phone or access to the internet, the Nodal Officer may organize a webinar at the college.

Q. Will the students/Faculty members be required to attend any session in person?

No, the students/Faculty members shall be attending the sessions online as it is a virtual event. No physical presence will, thus, be required at the festival.

Q. Are there any charges for attending the festival?

The festival is absolutely free to attend. There are no charges whatsoever.

Q. What are the benefits of attending the festival?

9

The participants will get a chance to listen to the opinions of acclaimed authors, speakers and resource persons on a diverse range of topics. The festival shall expand their knowledge horizons through the creation of new learning opportunities.

Q. What is the role of a Nodal Officer?

The Nodal Officer needs to ensure students attend their allotted session be it individually via phones or by organizing a webinar at school premises (ensuring social distancing). The nodal officer shall appoint 2 students who shall raise their queries in the interaction round of the session

Q. What is the link shared on the WhatsApp group?

The Google Form link shared with the Nodal Officers on whatsapp group has to be filled by the Nodal Officers (an excel document including the student details needs to be attached with the form).

Q. What is the Deadline for submission of the Google Link

The google link form needs to be submitted by 11th November,2020 latest by 5:00pm

Q. Will certificates be provided?

All the participants as well as the Nodal Officers will be awarded with Digital Certificates. It is therefore requested that accurate information be sent via Google forms to avoid mistakes in issuing individual certificates.

Q. What is the proposed Student Strength mentioned in the document shared.

As per the revised guidelines received from DGHE, the proposed student strength has been allotted to each institute based on the total strength of that institute. The numbers specified are not based on the previously submitted document sent by the nodal officers. The Proposed strength is the mandatory attendance expected out of each institute.

Q. Why is the proposed strength of my institute not as per the previously filled form?

The proposed strength is not as per the recommendation of the nodal officer, instead, it is as per the revised guidelines issued by the headquarters. The number specified is the mandatory student participation requirement from an institute. The proposed strength allotted to the institute is purely based on the total strength of that particular institute and not on the volunteer numbers provided by the nodal officers previously.

Q. How many sessions have been allotted to the institutes?

Institutes with greater student strength have been allotted 2-3 sessions.

Q. How to ensure mass participation?

As per the directions, the colleges resume from 16th November, if the students fail to individually attend sessions online, the Institutes may organize webinars in the college premises for mass participation ensuring social distancing.

Q. Can the students participate in other sessions as well?

The students are free to attend any session as per their interest but the attendance in the particular session that has been allotted is mandatory.

Q. Can the faculty members/Nodal Officers attend the session

Yes, the Nodal Officers may attend the sessions.

Q. I do not understand the topic of the session allotted to me

For more information pertaining to the session please write to us at vowdav@gmail.com

Q. Where can I check the schedule of the festival?

The schedule of the entire event has been sent to all the Nodal Officers. It is also available on the website - www.valleyofwords.org. Please follow our social media handles for details of the daily sessions and other updates relating to the event:
