The Andhra Pradesh Legislative Assembly & the Government of Andhra Pradesh (GoAP) are delighted to host the first apolitical National Women's Parliament (NWP) at Amaravati, A.P, India on 10th, 11th and 12th of February, 2017. The theme of this conference is 'Empowering women for nation building'. It will be the first of its kind conciave in India, which will be attended by eminent women from all walks of life, women members of legislative assemblies and women Members of Parliament of India. This conclave will have sessions aimed at generation of new ideas, concepts, theories pertaining to women empowerment.

In addition to hosting thought leaders and politicians, the NWP will see participation of nearly 10,000 girls from all colleges of AP, allowing them to learn and engage with key decision makers of the nation. The initiative, being conducted in association with MAEER's MIT School of Government, Pune, will thus celebrate and seek to further gender equity across all layers of governance and society.
